i woke up on a saturday morning-or should i say the afternoon-like any other saturday this one's boring- but today i dont care cause i've got you(1,2,3,4!)-lat night she came to see us play-after the show she decided to stay-things were fine and we were talking-and then we started walking-by this time it was a quarter past nine-she said, "call me sometime"-she wrote down her number and said, "call me tomorrow at nine"-so i picked up the phone exactly at nine-i called her up, she told me off-i said, "i thought you were mine"-she said, "wake up your dreaming"-she was so decieving-so i'll wait for ANOTHER SATURDAY!-i woke up on a saturday morning-or should i say the afternoon-like any other saturday this one's boring-but today i dont care cause i've got you(1,2,3,4!)-last night i saw her on the street-my eyes were glued from her head to her feet-things we fine and we were talking-and then we started walking-by this time it was half past ten-she said, "i hope that i see you again"-so then we talked it over and said tomorrow we'd meet at that spot exactly at ten-so i went back to the spot exactly at ten-i waited there, she stood me up-a girl tricked me again-maybe i should wake up, maybe i am dreaming-why are girls so deceiving?-so i'll wait for ANOTHER SATURDAY!
