I've missed you. I've missed you too.
Now what do we do?
We say goodbye, as the days go by
I still wonder why
Things didn't go quite as I planned
I don't understand
it's over now, it's said and done
I just thought that you were the one
Why did it have to be this way?
I'll see you another day
You're just so hard to get over
I guess this is getting older
I don't know what I should do so for now...fuck you

As I think back now, it makes me wanna cry
Cause I felt a piece of me die
We stayed up late, those times were great
Please just one more date?
Why did it have to be this way?
I'll see you another day
You're just so hard to get over
I guess this si getting older
I don't know what I should do
So for now...I love you
