haaa aaa haaa out of words can you think of better to say
really love you baby baby aaaa out of words

Im thinking of,
every single day i have with you
leave those,
let it end,
there so much more i want to give to you
i want to hold you and whisper in your ear, how much i love you, baby youre here

out of words
theres no way to express how i feel
its not easy to be
out of words
got nothing better to say than i love you more than words can say aaa out of words

oh you
took my hand
you told me we will be eternaly in the night
out of sigh
you where standing on your knees and pray i want to hold you
and whisper in your ear
how much i love you
baby youre here

out of words

haaaa mmm out of words
