If I could separate me from myself, I'd stay away from me.

If you decide I'm wrong, and you can wait that long, maybe it's not too late.

I will not lose you to the melting sky

Or to the mad parade

To the bloody jaws or the fire fall

Don't be afraid.

You need never know, a cold heart, heart of stone

Or lonely memory, you will never be alone

If I could separate me from myself, I'd stay away from me.

If you decide I'm wrong, and you can wait that long, maybe it's not too late.

I will not lose you to a world that doesn't care

To the monsters that would have you.

Never surrender you, I always will be there

I will be there to wrap myself around you

I will not lose you to the dark or to the nights

To the terrible machine

Never let you lose your light

If I could separate me from myself, I'd stay away from me.

But if you decide I'm wrong, and you can wait that long, don't fall away from me.

Don't pull away...

If I could separate me from myself, I'd stay away from me.

But if you think I belong, stay and keep me strong, maybe it's not too late.
