I know that you dreamed about it
And that it makes you sad sometimes
When all the doors get slammed in front of you man
Better hold your head and chin up this time
You're gonna need it
Little something gonna ease you mind
I think I can get it coz I see that you're in need of divine
Hold your head and chin up this time getting gone

Get get gone
Get get gone
Come on and get get gone

Some may think they got it
But they're just dreamers like me and you
Don't get told, find it out, before they tell you to

Please find it out, before they need you to
You gonna read it in the shops
In the hallways, restroom, in every city stop
But I can tell you that it's not
What's what of who's who, it's who's who and not what

Stand up not straight go find the line
You know best don't throw yourself to the lions
Stand up not straight go find the line
You know best don't throw yourself to the lions

Get get gone
Get get gone
Get get gone
