I don't know why i am asking you why are you with me Cause baby you know that I am begging you to keep me
Every time I think about doing wrong
I just think about you girl
Sometimes I fake work late night
Cause I was trying to find what I already got home girl Girls .. nothing to me you are all I need Baby is on a trial they don't mean nothing
I was on my .. already trashed off
I know that I wanna do better
I know this is hard for you but this is harder for me
So baby don't change your heart
I just know that you change your heart
I am just getting over you
Right between the lies you stop ,
I wanna be with someone better baby don't change your heart baby please don't change your mind you are the only one I wanna take to mamma baby please don't go
I rather that you don't change your mind
I don't understand at all Baby they don't mean a thing
Youa re the one that got my heart
They are just there for the ..
Baby I am sick of them all
I just wanna come to you Cause you got it all
And I need ir all
Ain't nothing better than the chick I got at home
Those girls mean nothing to me yeah
You are all I please
Baby is on a trial they don't mean nothing
I was on my .. already trashed off
I know that I wanna do better
I know this is hard for you but this is harder for me
So baby don't change your heart
I just know that you change your heart
I am just getting over you
Right between the lies you stop ,

I wanna be with someone better
baby don't change your heart
you are the only one I wanna take to momma
baby please don't go
I rather that you don't change your mind
I remember the first time
You told me you never been hurt before Now I messed it all up

So baby don't change your heart
I just know that you change your heart
I am just getting over you
Right between the lies you stop ,
I wanna be with someone better
baby don't change your heart
baby please don't change your mind
you are the only one I wanna take to momma
baby please don't go

Thanks to feel
