A new day for a mission.
Another sunrise in your heart.
Give me tears of the wrong.
The hate of convicts.
Glamour of the damned.
Rule of Benedict.

I never seen a dawn like this before.
Tears of the night turn to diamonds in your eyes.
In the face of the world's ugliness.
Sister of Charity, remains a mystery.

Love shines over aggression.
Another wound heals in your heart.
Give me fears of the strong.
The warfare politics.
The decay of the west.
Rule of Benedict.

I've never seen the dawn like this before.
Tears on the night turn to diamonds on your eyes.
In the face of the world's ugliness.
Sister of charity, remains a mystery.
