We live where there's no tomorrow
No past no rules to follow
Consummed by the innocence we take
We live out all our days
In the absence of light
Just for one kiss as the lovers unite
And I, I feel my temperature rise
We gotta get up, get up, get out, come on baby

We own the night, you and I
We're gonna live forever
It's in the stars we'll never die
If we stay together
(We own the night) I feel the blood in my heart start
pumping
(We own the night) Two souls in the throws of nothing
We own the night, you and I
If we stay to, stay together now

Give into a heart's desire
Moon drunk couldn't get much higher
No shame for the animals we are Pale white with the kill cursed hunger
Twilight is the spell we're under tonight
We never felt so alive
We gotta get up, get up, get out, come on baby

We own the night, you and I
We're gonna live forever
It's in the stars we'll never die
If we stay together
(We own the night) I feel the blood in my heart start
pumping
(We own the night) Two souls in the throws of nothing
We own the night, you and I
If we stay to, stay together now

We are, we are, we are the night

Come on
We gotta get up, get up, get out, come on baby

We own the night, you and I
We're gonna live forever
It's in the stars we'll never die
If we stay together
(We own the night) I feel the blood in my heart start
pumping
(We own the night) Two souls in the throws of nothing
We own the night, you and I
If we stay to, stay together
Stay to, stay together now
