you know it has to end like this
you know that its the only way
you know it has to end like this you know it babe...

bite my lip and with the slip of your tongue now look how its come undone

you know, you know
i thought it was all for me

you know i dont want to make this mess but i might do it anyway you thought kiss and a little confess no its not that easy babe

thought it was all for...

you made me do this

you know, you know, you know i thought it was all for you said it was all for
you said it was all for me heart and soul youre mine flesh and bone, youre mine
