"Thinking Of You"

Day by day as time passes by
Sitting here alone always thinking of you
I'm thinking what's on your mind
Tryn to find the answers that is foolin inside
Will I ever put it aside

Cho.
But I never thought it would come this far
I just can't say what my true feelings are
So afraid you might dis appear,
I'm so lucky that you are here... here

And now that I've known you
I hope my dreams will come true
And I'll be in love with you
I hope you feel the same way too... ohh ohhh ohhh

Repeat cho.
