[VERSE 1] - [Ryan Leslie] Uh uh... Is it the accent, the hype or the way she walking Am I, am I dreaming or am I sleep walking Got my arms out-stretched so I don't bump into her Silly me now I'm so into her fashion To her style her dress And im looking in the mirror like do I look fresh? do I? Do I look fresh enough to get her, If I see her one time then I wont forget her Cause I... I took a picture mentally when I pulled up in the black on black bent-a-ly and I... I really feel like she was meant for me If she wasn't then I know she was sent for me Cause she.. shes the only one that made me chase Got me singing love songs like Babyface and I tried to one night her but she made me wait... she made me wait.. hah! [CHORUS] And so I think she got something, she got something Yes she got something, something that I like (something I like, oohh she yeah) So I think she got something, she got something Yes she got something, something that I like (ooooh, now break it down like) She's got that something, shes got that something... that I like (uh, say it again like) She's got that something, shes got that something... that I like (uh) [VERSE 2] - [Ryan Leslie] I slow it down 'fore I pick her up Its 8 o'clock now we dating, inevitably dudes be hating but I... I still gotta flaunt my chick I laugh, no surprise that they want my chick Shes... more than they can comprehend British dudes idolize me they copy him Hes just too witty, game is too gritty, Look at his track record man, theres too many Tens, thats too many to count I spend, thats a any amount No matter to sum homey got the cash to cover it And when I wanna see she be fast to mother it Yeah... just so she can take my ends Would I let her to it hmm, well that depends Can she raise a young king? my blood is royal And if she can man it ain't a thing to spoil her [CHORUS] And so I think she got something, she got something Yes she got something, something that I like (something I like, oohh she yeah) So I think she got something, she got something Yes she got something, something that I like (ooooh, now break it down like) She's got that something, shes got that something... that I like (uh, say it again like) She's got that something, shes got that something... that I like (uh) [Verse 3] - [Pusha T]
