See me in my rock n roll tshirt. driving in my very metal car, hanging out at all the groovy rock shows. never knowing who you are. i like it faster and louder, scream til i cant scream no more. i am a rock n roll nuisance til im thrown out the door. cruise down the strip on my fat boy. dont you know who i am wearing black sunglasses and leather? i just dont give a damn.i love my 13 year old girlfriend. stay young forever, if i could. im a rock n roll bad boy til i die. lifes one big party to me
