This is the night; I can feel it from the warmth of the light,
That is above me, waiting for me to get up and take a hold of the flight, Iâ'm in a spaceship, waiting for the rocket boosters to ignite, Iâ've been pressing the button for years; nothing did happen until I felt This,
This feeling inside, the one that was stolen, years ago, but now itâ's
Returned,
I can feel this energy burn, ready for action, ready for love,
But not the kind I was thinking of, the kind of love that eats you up,
This is this kind thatâ's invincible, explainable, and the principle is,
This is the realest feeling Iâ've ever felt, no woman involved this is about Myself,
Colourful dreams now could come true, got some work to do, but I feel brand New,
I got whole new sky view of life, I was down on the ground but now Iâ've Taken flight, Got a good feeling this time Iâ'll get it right, been waiting all my life,
For this night tonight,

The flight has commenced, no more feeling like Iâ'm gonna descent,
This flights forever, no more life with the sigh of discontent,
I got a valid reason to augment; I got a whole lifeâ's worth of torment,
I got every right to fight for this night to light up my whole life in the Sky, my talent,
I got a vent; fill every word with intent, â'because I intend to be the best

In this existence,
No stopping me now my rocket ships a shooting star in the distance,
No need for a co-pilot, no assistance, no time for you dick heads, Iâ€™ve been doing this alone for years, with bare subsistence, just this Persistence,
This is the strongest Iâ€™ve ever been, mountain gear on because Iâ€™m Conquering dreams,
No matter how wild they are, Iâ€™m a jaguar, and Iâ€™m going far,
Set off through space to the brightest star, become one with the flaming Sun, Feeling higher than Iâ€™ve ever done, and I swear to the moon, Iâ€™ve only just Begun,

Once there was this aching, didnâ€™t know which way I was meant to be facing,
taking those routes is Why Iâ€™m like this,
And I fell, ended up directly in hell, lost any echoes of sound,
But from facing down, I turned around, looked up; saw my future seeping
Through the clouds,
And I soar, tonight, aiming straight up never gonna stop â€™til I get to that Undying light,
Until I become that light, brightest star in the sky, Like a meteorite, Iâ€™ll never fall back down with an almighty sound, Iâ€™ve never been so sure, itâ€™s never felt so right, this feeling inside, is How I know that tonightâ€™s the night,
