How can you think I'm holding on Losing my grip now it's time to fall
I never knew you could be wrong
Looking straight up when I knew it all

Now, how could you tell me that I'm still the one Counting the time on my fingers 'til I have none
Go, mock everything that you've said in the past
I should have known that this feeling would not last

So much is just going to stay

Break all the thoughts in the back of my head

I'm slowly fading away
Break all the thoughts in the back of my mind
This won't ever be the same

Now, how can you think that you are still the one Counting the time on your fingers and biting your tongue
Go, mock everything that you've done in the past
I should have known that this feeling would not last

I'm not here
In the middle of this line
Never fear
For your time and come away with me
