Visit "Reality Trick" on MotoLyrics.com

Take a step inside and recognize
This isn't what it seems
People all around just laughing and
Forming little teams
Take another step and realize
This place intoxicates all who have dreams
I heard it say

I will turn you into wasteland
Be another one who's wasted
Where will it have gone tomorrow

Try to find it out on your own

Take a step back as it frightens me
Turn the other way
Never look back in directions that
Existed here today
Close the door and move away from it
Searching has begun for what I crave
I heard it say
