I've slammed the door a thousand times
whats mine is mine whats yours is mine..
Its a long drive uphill.. sit back I'm takin the wheel.

So many highs so many lows
YOu move to quick to ever show exactly how you feel so im taking the wheel

Everbody says it can't be done
We drive eachother crazy but ur still the one
You make it hard to stay,
Harder to run.

U and me were quite a pair.
we make a mess out of thin air you know i love you still Im taking the wheel

Everbody says it can't be done
We drive eachother crazy but ur still the one
You make it hard to stay,
Harder to run.
Its a knockdown drag out fight
sometimes it twists and we can go all night
Your coming with me now heres the deal
Slide on over..
Im taking the wheel

So many roads we've left to take so much history to make we bend but we dont' break

Everbody says it can't be done
We drive eachother crazy but ur still the one
You make it hard to stay,
Harder to run.
Its a knockdown drag out fight

sometimes it twists and we can go all night
Your coming with me now heres the deal
Slide on over..

Even this crazy tug of war..
Only make me want you more...
Coming with me.. thats how I feel Baby slide on over.. Im taking the wheel

I've slammed the door a thousand times
whats mine is mine whats yours is mine..
Its a long drive uphill.. sit back I'm takin the wheel.
