It brings back an old feeling

Running into you like this

I'm really not afraid of hurting

But I can't stand the awkwardness

Do I laugh

Do I cry

Do I dare look in your eyes

Oh no, here it goes

My hands start to shake

My heart's gonna' show

Like the day we met

To the night you said we're through

Everytime I look at you

You seem to be a bit distracted

I wish that I could feel the same

You never were too good at acting

Baby some things never change

I can't keep from letting go

It's something that I can't control

Oh no, here it goes

My hands start to shake
My heart's gonna' show
Like the day we met
To the night you said we're through
Everytime I look at you
You stand there looking sweet and innocent
But how can you be so cruel and confident
At my expense
Oh no, here it goes
My hands start to shake
My heart's gonna' show
Like the day we met
To the night you said we're through
Everytime I look at....
Oh no, here it goes
My hands start to shake
My heart's gonna' blow
Like the day we met
To the night you said we're through
Everytime I look at you
Oh yeah, everytime I look at you
