Don Henry/Lauren Braddock)

If I was a cloud, I'd make baby raindrops

And they'd feed the treetops

If I was a cloud

If I was the sun, I'd shine on the flowers

And pass on the power

If I was the sun

If I was the moon, I'd caress every ocean

In celestial motion

If I was the moon

If I was a star, charmed and enchanted

All wishes would be granted

If I was a star

If I was your man, the kisses would linger

I'd melt in your fingers

If I was your man

If I was your man, we'd share every shower

And wash away the hours baby

If I was your man

If I was a song, I'd reach all the people

From barrooms to steeples

If I was a song
If I was a dream, I'd be sweeter than honey
I'd be bigger than money
If I was a dream
If I was your man, we'd dance through the daisies
They'd say we were crazy girl
If I was your man
If I was your man, I'd pump you with this passion
You'd get more than fashion baby
If I-I-I-I-I was your man
You would not have to hurry
I'd rub away your worries girl
If I was your man
If I was your man, then we'd be together
Now and forever baby
If I was your man
And if we were love, we'd heal every nation
We'd be on everybody's station
If we were love
If I was your man, sweet lovin' man
If I was your man
If I was your man
