"The Organization Of Nonconformists"

Visit "The Organization Of Nonconformists" on MotoLyrics.com

We all share a common thread
In all our differences
Nobody tells us what to do
Until we vote, then majority rules

We're the Organization of Nonconformists
We all wear matching uniforms
Please take your assigned seats then we'll
Proceed to issue name tags and ID... numbers

We're all equally unique
Our dissidence in sync
Unorthodox but orderly
Just don't question our authority, please

We're the Organization of Nonconformists
If you're one of them, then you're not one of us

Please take your assigned seats then we'll
Proceed to read an excerpt from our creed

Aspire to do as you're told
Don't try to break the mold
You know that idea's old and mildewed

Go your own way
But you know it's all the same, yeah
Someone's already gone that way before you

Buck the system all you want
You're just creating a new one
That's the way the world works, it's true

Come join and see...
You won't regret when you're a nonconformist just like me
