If this is light leave me in the dark / If this is salvation cast me into the flames / And watch me smile / With a smile stretched across my heathen face / So there is not one ounce of doubt / Which side of your gates I proudly stand on / Your tides of genocide and cultural assimilation / Have crashed upon this earth for far too long / And There's not one holy word or tearful prayer / To wipe clean the lineage of this empire / And if there is one thing that your church has earned / Is that you all deserve to fucking burn / Burn in the hell that you made / Burn in the hell you created / Burn in hell
