Tony Colton)

I may look like a city slicker shinin' up through my shoes

But underneath I'm just a cotton picker pickin' up the messy blues

CHORUS:

Show me where I start

Find a horse & cart

I'm just a country boy, country boy at heart

I may look like a bank teller pushing facts in a file

But I'd rather be a haul collar shooing foot home on the style

(chorus)

(instrumental)

(repeat verse 1)
