burning down from the sky, something unknown to man
all the souls that have died, a plague spreads across the land

enter the atmosphere, what do youâ€™re senses hear do you believe you are alone, oh yeah are you alone?

the green all turns to blue, rivers freeze over all earth has become cold, barren for all time

do you believe you are alone, oh yeah are you alone?
do you believe you are alone, oh yeah are you alone?

instruments created for seeing farther could have opened something near instruments created for seeing farther could you have opened something near?

do you believe you are alone, oh yeah are you alone?

something near
