follow the rest of the sheep, into the meadow of death believe to believe, makes you feel better, constantly worried about everything

îâ€™ ll die laughing, i know the truth confirm your beliefs by complaining, always ready to obey never, ever question, just keep believing your truth

swear an alliance to a weak man, swear an alliance to an opinion, swear an alliance to blindness, swear an alliance to an unknown end?

bitter irony, scared more of death, one weak man, will tell all bitter irony, all will follow, total weakness, the masses of men

îâ€™ ll die a strong man, believing in myself îâ€™ ll die with strong men, who can challenge a thought
