unmistakable is the truth, there will always be an end everything should be buried deep, deep within the earth

who can win the game faster?
who the hell knows the truth?
i figured out long ago
to be my own who knows who we can trust, who knows what we should know iâ€™d like to know what i can find, everything should be dug deeper

who can loose the game slower? who the hell knows anything at all?
no ones figured out where we go until theyâ€™re gone; thatâ€™s alls guess
