"Perfect Circle"

Visit "Perfect Circle" on MotoLyrics.com

Chaos, the status you're dreading the most Fear of a life you can no more control
I won't be another slave; won't be another drone
I will choose my way; I will break your chains

Faceless, a shade of who you used to be
Nameless, disciple of conformity
You hate, degrade, despise, defy those who won't
Adept, respect, follow, swallow

Let the chips fall where they may to evolve
Struggle's a waste when the dices have been thrown
I won't be another drudge; won't be another clone

I will live my own life, who are you to judge?

Faceless, a shade of who you used to be
Nameless, disciple of conformity
You hate, degrade, despise, defy those who won't
Adept, respect, follow, swallow

Draw me your perfect circle
Show me your perfect circle
You won't

You'll come to realize, your utopia is a bunch of lies
The hatred you idolize, the only purpose of your pathetic lives
