Feel the motherfucking pain

Watch the patterns of our lives become symmetric in design

Another day, another death, the only way to free our minds

Take a shot, cut the Flesh, let the awakening begin It's never too late to go and free what's human deep within

Sin by sin we're giving in
Step by step we're fading
This is the new heroin
The new plague society created

The only way for feeling sane is feeling pain
I'll drain my body off their lies
I'll cut myself to feel alive

This is the only way to live, but not only way to die Can't wait for you to calcify, become a relic of your fucking lie
Avoiding pain is avoiding life; you've been killing yourself for so long

Fleeing towards what you fear the most, you're back-stabbed idiot on the run

Sin by sin we're giving in
Step by step we're fading
This is the new heroin
The new plague society created

The only way for feeling sane is feeling pain
I'll drain my body off their lies
I'll cut myself to feel alive

Caged in these glass walls of trepidation
So easy to shatter, but yet you gag on the truth
The life you hold onto is just an illusion
You'd rather suffocate then letting loose

The only way for feeling sane is feeling pain
I'll drain my body off their lies
I'll cut myself to feel alive
