Her soul gets torn apart, her life gets ripped in two
But just a couple times a night
Her lovely eyes of green are black and blue
But that won't change her life

Anybody seen her soul?
Anybody seen this girl's soul?

So then without conviction, she takes a knife
Proceeds to make a little slice
Cause no one ever looked in to her heart
And that could save her life
Anybody seen her soul?
Anybody seen this girl's soul?

How could she be so violent, night after night?
She's just a little child!
She's just a little child!
How could she be so violent, night after night?
She's just a little child!
She's just a little child!

Anybody seen her soul?
Anybody seen this girl's soul?
