Look to the left, look to the right
I see my baby in the middle of the night
And I dont wanna see her eat out of the palm of my hand
But I told her theres one thing she's gotta understand

IM JUST A MAN!
I ain't got no master plan
Just A Chosen Boy in a rock n roll band

She's restless, wide open
I don't ever wanna see her choking
Cause this life will speed on by just as fast as it can
So I told her there's one thing shes gotta understand
IM JUST A MAN!
I ain't got no master plan
Just a chosen boy in a rock n roll band

HEY WARDEN! HEY WARDEN!
Unlock my heart and let the love back in

No promise, no warnings
Just know that the sun will heat your morning
And i'll always remember how you apprehend
I was just a criminal with a sentence to spend

IM JUST A MAN!
Just a chosen boy in a rock n roll band
