I'm with you
In St Lou
The Mississippi misunderstood
In these times, in these eyes
The roar may be dying but we are still high
In this city so fair
Hope and despair
I don't know where to begin

Here with you
In St Lou
Magnetize my broken dreams
In the sweet summer heat
On the back of the bus where lovers don't meet
In this city so cold
Secrets are told
Til i just keep growing old
Here with you in St Lou
In St Lou

Just being without you was so easy in our time
But i think about you almost each and every night
Because i've been searching for something i may never recieve

Here with you
In St Lou
The silvery twinkle in skyline of blue
And these sands
Til the end
Now maybe i should've had some sort of care
For my city so strong
Have all along
Til i just keep growing old
Here with you
In St Lou
In St Lou

Just being without you was so easy in our time
But i think about you almost each and every night
Because i've been searching for something i may
never recieve

Here with you
In St Lou
People come and go
But we stay the same
And hold the key to being sane
In this city so fair
City of God
Watch as the world passes by
Here with you
In St Lou
In St Lou
