"Make It To The Sky"

I've seen a million faces
Painted with despair
And in their eyes I found
Not an ounce of care

They never stop
To ask the question
Don't wanna know
The reason why

Their life was just
Another dream
That didn't make it
To the sky

To once I've had a song
That matched anything
It's even hard for you
Now to explain

You see
You're born to make it
And then you turn me
Besides

You know it's just
Another dream
That won't make it
To the sky

There goes another one
Didn't make it
No more turns
Just make it

Just one minute too late
And you can't reach me
Didn't make it
Didn't make it

Get through

Didn't make it
And I feel sorry
You didn't make it

It makes me consider
Am I living what I feel?
When everything around me
Is sliding down here

Don't give me much hope
But still I've gotta try

For life will be
Another dream
That didn't make it
To the sky

My life will be
Another dream
That didn't make it
To the sky

My life will be
Another dream
That didn't make it
Up to the sky

My life will be
Another dream
That didn't make it
Up to the sky

My life will be
Another dream
That didn't make it
Up to the sky

My life will be
Another dream
That didn't make it
Up to the sky
