

7 Times Suicide "A Necklace Made Of Feelings"

Visit "A Necklace Made Of Feelings" on MotoLyrics.com

Five years today
So long and still it's hard
Faces, memories, wishes
All kept together by a thick yarn

So grab your hopes and throw them in the sky
You'll never know if they're gonna fall or fly
Trying to beat their wings against the wind that life blows
Everything happens this is just your choice

Tomorrow is already too late

You'll never be ready if you're not ready today
Tomorrow is too late
Tomorrow is too fuckin late

Have you ever felt alone in the middle of nowhere
Surrounded by people that seem not to be there?
Maybe I'm wrong, maybe you are right
I think I'm going to sleep now, tomorrow I'll be fine...
