Open your eyes, open your eyes.
What does this mean to you?
Your past mistakes means nothing to you,
You don't care they are hand me downs you will not wear.
Your name is your pride.
You're doing fine, well that is the lie
That your family said as they died.
Open your eyes, open your eyes.
What does this mean to you?
Old and frail he makes no sound,
Past addictions got him down.
Maybe he will fade away.
I don't want to die that way.
Open your eyes, open your eyes.
What does this mean to you tonight?
Show me the only way out of this town.
I'll take back the words that I've said.
It seems like the only way out of this town
Is to face all the fears in my head
I fall on my knees, I say come cleanse me.
I fall on my knees. Take this curse from me.
