"Chainsaw Death Riot"

Take hold, take charge.
This time we will spread like wild fire.
I've seen men bleed, their blood for You.
I would fight for this cause.
I would die for your love.
Never have I seen a time when I would hide the truth.
You will believe in me.
I know I must redefine what is in my life for You.
Be there, there for You.
Without You what would I do?
Bloodshed, fear and angst caused by death.
Bloodshed, little children no remorse.
Never have I seen a time when I would hide the truth.
I know I must redefine what is in my life for You.
