I am confused by a traffic of minds, they invade my reason and transform in paranoia, rambling paranoia. That can only make me feel bad, Iâ€™m still paying my errors whose Iâ€™ll never stop to repent. So tell me what you want and tell me what you need, tell me what I have to do. Maybe hope in a coming back or not? Now I understand what you felt and for this I repent again, repent againâ€¦ Iâ€™m looking at the white wall in front of me, where I see images that I wouldnâ€™t ever seen and I feel too much lonelyâ€¦ Echo of your these fuckinâ€™ true words, sounds again in my head and I fall in a gap of tears. Please donâ€™t leave me, â€™cause I need you. Please donâ€™t leave me, â€™cause I love you. The wind of hope to have you near again re-starts to blow stronger than before. I donâ€™t know how much time it will be able to resist in silenceâ€¦ Then a close-up, a look , a smile of yours all this fills me of life. A new sun is burning me, inside. So take its rays and make them yours Iâ€™ll never feel alone but do it now because this time has not soul.
