Mirrorman

I can split myself to be under - her black hair
See myself
As the one I'd like to be sometimes - with her

All over

Her bomb-shell-body
Run over - sugar

Mirrorman

Follows feelings locked deep inside - yeah
Rambling man
Oh she wipes away the chill on my bones - with her eyes

All over

Her bomb-shell-body
Run over - sugar!

Reflected in the lies I make everyday
I'm paying his dues and I can't slip away
Is there any sense in carrying this on?
Wanna wake up some day to find out he's gone
