My pants are purple, my car is white,
My dick is hard, and I'm out of sight

In my blue tennisshoes

I am a creature, still made of flesh!
With blood-stop-boiling to ash in ash

My mind is so clear...

My eyes are green and my skin is red,

This ain't my house, the sheets are wet

I got blue tennisshoes

I made my own life I'm a burning man!
I gotta keep walking and back again!

But my mind is clear...

In my blue tennisshoes

My mind is so clear...
