Mirrorman

I can split myself to be under - her black hair

See myself

As the one I'd like to be sometimes - with her

All over

Her bomb-shell-body

Run over - sugar

Mirrorman

Follows feelings locked deep inside - yeah

Rambling man

Oh she wipes away the chill on my bones - with her eyes

All over

Her bomb-shell-body

Run over - sugar!

Reflected in the lies I make everyday

I'm paying his dues and I can't slip away

Is there any sense in carrying this on?

Wanna wake up some day to find out he's gone
