She kisses other men
Her speed-o-meter cranks me up
The ol' dashboard is glowing again!

I need another coin
Like water I'm spoiling everything - yeah
I'm playing the usual game
Ignoring or kissing it away

Tonight my girl has fixed her eyes
On a guy who looks just like the man in her mind
Just one at a time

I'm dealing another deck of cards
Knowing that now would be the time to pull over
As gently as she can play her part
I just use her to mug the next joker
Tonight this girl has fixed her eyes
On a guy who looks just like the man in her mind
Just one at a time

Oh - she kisses other men
Oh - my speed-o-meter cranked her up
Oh - her dashboard glows again!
Oh - her pain is in my hands - yeah

Tonight my girl has fixed her eyes
On a guy who looks just like the man in her mind
A steaming machine needs a game to play
It's hard if can't put my confidence away
Just one at a day
