The circumstances that we face are not always how we want them
And it's these times alone in my room when I miss you most Every night I dream of all of the days that we spent together
All the times we've shared the memories that we've made
I hope this dream will never end
I'm sorry that I left you, I'm sorry that I've gone away
But if what they say is true, then I know we'll pull through Cause distance only makes the heart grow fonder
And I know we don't always agree on our beliefs
It seems we both know we're right but I'll never lose sight
I just pray that one day you'll see him too

together
All the times we've shared the memories that we've
made
I pray this dream will never end (I'll be back someday)
To see your smile again (I'll be back someday) Cause I can't seem to live without the look that's on your face
As I take the turn that leads into your arms
But I guess for now that I'll be moving on And we may not always be together, time may tear us apart
But friendship lasts forever
So I'm betting my life on this I knew this dream would have to end.
