"The Stars Have Fallen"

Visit "The Stars Have Fallen" on MotoLyrics.com

We are consumed by the night, the stars have fallen from the sky.

There is a river of lies flowing from your mouth as the flood begins to rise

Day by day, we will slowly die as you drift away

Day by day, suffocating, we will drown in time

It's all said and done, these lies that you have told won't kill anyone,

Your life is submerging the dawn is approaching, darkness fades away

Day by day, we will slowly die as you drift away

Day by day, suffocating, we will drown in time

Breathe Your breath on me, my heart is not beating but I keep on breathing

Breathe Your breath on me, I'll cut my eyes out if seeing is believing

Breathe Your breath on me, you're the chain to the anchor that's pulling me underwater

Day by day, we will slowly die as you drift away

Day by day, suffocating, we will drown in time

The stars have fallen...
