Can't decide if what we're doing is right and sometimes I wish things hadn't changed.
I'd be Prince Charming I'd come and save the day.
I'd end all this chaos with a kiss.
When we're together it seems like we're stuck in time
and the world is moving all around us.
When we're together it feels like everything is right and
for one moment, I have seen perfection.
I can't blame you for being who you are.
And I have thought about it all night long.
I know you're far away but all I want to do is to spend one more night in your arms.

When we're together it seems like we're stuck in time
and the world is moving all around us.
When we're together it feels like everything is right and
for one moment, I have seen perfection.
I know I've changed, I'm sorry for ever asking you to change with me I only wanted to be with you (2x)

Thinking about who we were and what we have been through you feel so far away.
Looking into your blue eyes they're like the ocean, I'm treading water but sinking fast I knew this

Wouldn't last. (2x)
When I am with you.
