

Misty Miller

"Eve"

Visit "Eve" on MotoLyrics.com

Yesterday I read what you wrote it was the sweetest of all notes
Like a simple G or lifting C and the fact that you gave it to me
Do you remember sometimes whenever we would talk they walked together 3d glasses, walking in and they said you've gotta wait for the film to begin On the phone me and you were planning what to do to get out boys in our shoes Looking at all our choices to the point the phone started to make noises

But I love you the most
And I'm in love with your ghost

You're so pretty, in and out you glow and even though you don't like me so Those little red stamps just keep increasing along with all the addictive piercings Like little girls in our little world we love to wear dresses and twirl
Honey and lemon and country accents, no direction and stupid actions

But I love you the most
And I'm in love with your ghost

When you walk by you light up the sky and make all the little angels cry Tears of joy and you make me feel like I've had the warmest of tea

Not a hundred million thousand words could ever make it heard
Of how you're such a special girl you've lightened up my world

Visit Misty Miller page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.
