I'll still hear your voice and I'll still have no choice
So I will just listen as your face slowly glistens
And I'll stay here a while I ain't leaving without a smile
Cause I love you so there's no chance that I'll go away
No I'm here to stay

Oh no you ain't getting rid of me yet
There's no way I'm a girl you will forget

I loved it last night when you held me so tight
But then you let go and I was alone
And he said stay away so you left me astray
You came out and in and left your Adrian alone
With hands so cold

Oh no you ain't getting rid of me yet
There's no way I'm a girl you will forget

No I'll still have hope
I'll still have hope
I'll still have hope
I've still got hope
