I'm strolling down a lonesome highway on my way to catch a dream
It's custom made for me my new best friend oh how I feel free Yeah now I'm going back with my head held high

Sweep me off my feet, live for today
Let the stars of San Francisco lead the way

So one chance in a million still means there is a chance Excitement's in the air tonight a special feeling in these neon lights
One second we're dancing, the next we're in a fight

Sweep me off my feet, live for today
Let the stars of San Francisco lead the way
