VERSE

Darling yeah you and me don't need to feel blue just ride with me and lets flow to a hustlers' tune. Baby yeah hold on tight cause the pink Cadillac rolls tonight, with bright lights on the dash, dice in the rear view giving us flash.

Far away is where we go where we end up nobody knows, to get your time is much, much sweeter than sugar wine.

CHORUS

So yeah lets make it easy and lets now take it slow and laugh a little more. Oh yeah don't be so conceited and please, please don't turn up your nose and love a little more. Hey now it was so nice so I guess i'll say it once more love a little more.

VERSE

Darling no I won't feel blue for the penny that fell through the hole in my shoe, I feel so elite riding around in your tiger seats. I'm headed down to the funk symphony missing it now would be a sin to me, with bright lights from the back, police please can't you cut me some slack.

Now i'm heading down everything is spinning around here comes a wild tornado but it won't stop The Funk though no.

FINAL VERSE

Darling yeah you and me don't need to feel blue just ride and ride with me and groove to this hustlers' tune. Groove to this tune across the whole world...ya heard.
