tell me you don't have nothing on your mind but a lust, a desire for havin' sex and beer tell me there are not skeletons for me to find in the closet of your life if i should get near so its in the open i will not lie i like to have fun that's simply why i'm here so if you're all about dwellin' on bad times you've come to the wrong place cause we don't make a...

chorus:

i'll tell you the truth cause there are no strings attached i'll party with you even if we get completely smashed if fun is not what you may or not of had in mind i'd rather read smut it takes less end of yours and of my time

so and if i ask you something you'll reply i'll never disappoint you don't ever fear i think i have something you might like it's not some stds, child support, and tears so if it sounds like something that you might like don't sit so far away come on over here i'll over you a beer and ask do you get high i'm straight, i'm honest, all i need is some luvn'
