English translation

I lost sight of myself in the pouring rain Failing to be recognized, I'll resign myself to futilityLet's stretch these hands out and not look backI want to be near you
My wish is to be near you
As it is, just like this, I can keep living like this Surely if I hold that hand I'll be able to fly anywhere, right?
If it's with you, even far away, just like thisEach different truth clashes, becoming chaos
If everyone sheds the same tearsLet's stretch out these hands and come to understand each other I want to feel, always The warmth carved into this hand is yours, something I've discovered with you The things that are unchanging have begun to change in varied ways

As it is, just like this, I can receive it all Some day we will no longer be able to meet, once these hands have parted
I won't forget -- because I won't forget,
I can fly anywhere, right?
I am thinking of you
I am near you at all times
As it is, just like this, I can keep living like this Right now I want to be near you
My wish is to be near you
As it is, just like this, I will keep living like this
