Everything you asked for she's written down
Translating as she goes for good luck
We don't have the right to make it wrong
If we can't even tell the difference

Just as you are leaving he's stuttering
Trying to tell someone he's freezing
We only make out syllables and panomime
You think he's trying to ask directions

Now you're at the surface
You idolize someone you never even met
I, I hate it all here
You take it for granted, you never know the score

Even looking closely it's hard to tell
What you're trying to do exatcly
The language and the signage is clear enough
You point the other way and exit

Now you're at the surface
You idolize someone you never even met
I, I hate it all here
You take it for granted, you never know the score

You don't get me down now
You don't even care what it's all about...

Now you're at the surface
You idolize someone you never even met
I, I hate it all here
You take it for granted, you never know the score
