And it's on fire, but we keep walking
You check the address, it's not ours
And there's no time for what you're selling
You start to smile cos I'm telling everybody

And this goes off without warning
It starts in hours, ends in days
And there's no crimes for what you're telling
You start to smile cos I'm telling everybody

I'm going wild for, I'm going wild for a while
I'm going wild for, I'm going wild

And when that day's around the corner
I'll still be wearing the same clothes
And there's no rhyme to what you're yelling
You start to smile cos I'm telling everybody

I'm going wild for, I'm going wild for a while
I'm going wild for, I'm going wild
