It's yours
I give up
I didn't know where to turn
You were broke when you said I've got lots to learn
Now you set up a lousy confessional
You were all that could push and pull

Whatever you got into you better destroy it right now

I give up
I've ran out of things to sell
You can tell
I didn't affect you when I know that
This ain't ..
You, you smile, you're keeping something inside

Whatever you got into you better destroy it right now

When I fell in love with the sound, that's when I knew it
I've been falling to sleep with the walls staring me
down

I can tell you how many times I've cried
Over the counter and over the reasons why
Why confetti litter up in the streets
You and me never to be complete

Whatever you got into you better destroy it right now

When I fell in love with the sound, that's when I knew it
I've been falling to sleep with the walls staring me
down
When I fell in love with the sound, that's when I knew it
I've been falling to sleep with the walls staring me
down

And I fell down thinking of you
The times have turned around
It's way overdue
And I fell down thinking of you

The times have turned around
It's way overdue, way overdue, way overdue

When I fell in love with the sound, that's when I knew it
I've been falling to sleep with the walls staring me
down
When I fell in love with the sound, that's when I knew it
I've been falling to sleep with the walls staring me
down
